

SNAP Education delivers evidence-based, multi-level initiatives that empower participants to choose healthier foods and live active lifestyles. SNAP-Ed meets participants across the lifespan where they eat, learn, live, play, shop, and work.

Adagio Health's SNAP-Ed Reach

49,678 Participants
Received Direct Education

91,715 Participants
Impacted by Policy, Systems, and Environmental (PSE)
Change Initiatives

412 Locations
Across 168 Partners
Urban Locations: 262
Rural Locations: 150

17 Counties Reached

Allegheny, Armstrong, Beaver, Butler, Cambria, Crawford, Erie, Fayette, Greene, Indiana, Jefferson, Lawrence, Mercer, Somerset, Venango, Washington, and Westmoreland.

Testimonial

"... Collaborating with the SNAP Educators and our school community has promoted healthy choices for students and their families and is helping to create a foundation for lifelong healthy habits."

Traci Mikesic, Greater Johnstown

Highlights

Expanding Access to Farm Fresh PA Produce (EAT Farm Fresh)

SNAP-Ed project to support traditional farmers markets in promoting the Farmers Market Nutrition Program (FMNP), hold pop-up markets, assisting shoppers in utilizing their benefits at the market, and highlighting seasonal produce through food demonstrations, tastings, and nutrition education materials.

- 367 Pop-Up Market Events
- 23 Pennsylvania Farmers and Growers

Veterans Food Access

Similar to the EAT Farm Fresh project, Adagio Health is bringing more fresh, local produce to veterans in our community.

- 529 Veterans Provided with Free Produce

Food Security

Adagio Health's SNAP-Ed inspired the establishment of Food Cupboards in each of its WIC and Medical offices, where patients and clients are screened for food insecurity at every visit.

- 3,121 Individuals were Served

Experiential Learning

SNAP-Education offers participants opportunities to practice label reading, recipe adaptation, food safety, and cooking skills through hands-on lessons.

- Facilitated 525 Lessons

